

Home: How Heaven and the New Earth Fulfill Our Deepest Longings
Elyse M Fitzpatrick
IBCD 2016

Introduction

- I. The Master Carpenter
 - a. John 14:1-3
 - b. Not what they were expecting
 - c. On earth as it is in heaven
 - d. Where we go when we die
 - i. The two heavens
- II. The Master Gardener
 - a. Returning to the Garden and the creation mandate
 - i. The one missing command
 - b. Refusing Greek philosophy
 - i. Jesus ate fish.
 - ii. The resurrection of the body; the firstfruits
 - iii. Jesus in the garden bringing good news
- III. The City Abraham Saw
 - a. New York and Beijing
 - b. Millions of physical people
 - c. The river, the trees, the temple
- IV. All Things New
 - a. Everything new everyday
 - b. Again! Again!
 - c. Learning, exploring, growing—all part of the worship to come.
- V. The End of Your Bucket List
- VI. Looking through the Thin Places

- a. Celtic Spirituality
- b. The church

VII. Nothing in Vain

- a. 1 Cor 15:56
- b. Cleansing fire
- c. It is impossible that the good creation will have to be trashed
- d. Our good works somehow hasten his coming

VIII. The Eternal Hello

- a. Try to imagine a world where you'll never have to say "good-bye."