

Cultivating Christ-Centered Counseling in Our Churches:
Radical Ministry in a Darkened World—Philippians 2:1-18
Bob Kellemen

The Radical Idea: To Cultivate the Atmosphere of Christ-Centered Counseling in Our Churches, We Must Live Worthy of the Gospel by Living Through Christ, Like Christ, and For Christ

The Real-Life Picture: A Living Example of Christ-Saturated Living

I. Our Means for Christian Living: We Live Worthy of the Gospel by Living Through Christ—1:27-2:1

A. When This World Knocks You Down, Be Sure You're Living For Christ's Kingdom: 1:27-30

B. When This World Knocks You Down, Be Sure You're Living Through Christ's Power: 2:1

II. Our Model for Christian Living: We Live Worthy of the Gospel by Living Like Christ—2:2-8

A. When This World Knocks You Down, Keep a Radical Focus on Other-Centered, Christ-Like Living: 2:2-5

B. When This World Knocks You Down, Keep a Radical Focus on Applying God's Word to Your Daily Life and Relationships: 2:5-8

III. Our Motive for Christian Living: We Live Worthy of the Gospel by Living For Christ—2:9-18

A. When This World Knocks You Down, Remember—It's All About Him: 2:9-11

B. When This World Knocks You Down, Remember—It All Leads to Gospel Joy: 2:12-18

The Radical Question: Who Am I Living Through, Like, and For?
