HELPING WIVES WHOSE HUSBANDS STRUGGLE WITH PORNOGRAPHY

I. Introduction

You never know how God is going to use the Biblical advice that you give someone. When confronted with their sin, God may harden the husband's heart or He may grant them repentance; but the wife has to try and in her effort, she is glorifying God whether her husband does or not. Plus she is showing love to her husband whether he perceives it that way or not.

A. For this workshop I want to do the following:

- 1. How to give hope and direction to the wife.
- 2. Walk you through the Biblical resources that God has given to protect a wife whose husband is sinning.
- 3. Compare fearful/prideful thoughts the wife may have with Godhonoring biblical thoughts that she should have.
- 4. Evaluate further resources to help the wife.

II. Giving Hope

A. A wife in a situation like this likely struggles at many levels:

Embarrassment; if the husband has committed adultery she may be considering divorce; fear over what the future holds; the husband may have difficulty responding to her intimacy needs; the husband may try to require perverted, painful intimacy acts from her; she is likely very bitter and angry; she does not trust her husband; he may have introduced her to pornography and she now struggles with it; the husband may be manipulating her if she does not stay quiet about his problem.

B. Statements from the Counselor that Give Hope

- 1. I am so sorry that you are going through this.
- 2. No matter what your husband ultimately does, you can show love to him and love to God in the process.

- 3. You can be faithful to God whether your husband repents or not.
- 4. It would not matter who your husband was married to, this is his sin in his heart. I know it is difficult to not take this personally, but your focus needs to be on God (by obeying Him) and your husband (by speaking the truth in love).
- 5. I am committed to praying for you and helping you go through this.
- 6. This will not be easy, but God will help you and I will help you.

C. Statements from God that Give Hope and Direction

- 1. "I will never leave you nor forsake you." Hebrews 13:5
- 2. "I am faithful and will never give you more than you can bear. I will give you a way of escape and meanwhile give you grace to bear up under it." 1 Corinthians 10:13
- 3. "Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven." Matthew 5:10
- 4. "If you ask Me, I will give you wisdom." James 1:5-8
- 5. "Come to Me all who labor and are heavy laden and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light." Matthew 11:28-30
- 6. "Let not your heart be troubled, believe in God, believe also in Me." John 14:1
- 7. "I will supernaturally work this situation for your good and My glory to make you more Christ-like." Romans 8:28-30
- 8. "Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good." Romans 12:21
- 9. "Walk as a [child] of light (for the fruit of light is found in all that is good and right and true), and try to discern what is pleasing to the Lord. Take no part in the unfruitful works of darkness, but instead expose them." Ephesians 5:8-11
- 10. "Let all bitterness and wrath and anger and clamor and slander be put away from you, along with all malice. Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you." Ephesians 4:31-32
- 11. "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! According to His great mercy, He has caused us to be born again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you, who by God's power are being guarded through faith for a salvation read to be revealed in the last time. In this you rejoice, though now for a little while, if necessary, you have been grieved by various trials, so that the tested genuineness of your faith – more precious than gold that perishes though it is tested by fire – may be found to result in praise and glory and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ. Though you have not seen Him, you love Him." 1 Peter 1:3-8

- 12. "Do not let your adorning be external the braiding of hair and the putting on of gold jewelry, or the clothing you wear but let your adorning be the hidden person of the heart with the imperishable beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit, which in God's sight is very precious." 1 Peter 3:3-4
- 13. Humble yourselves, therefore, under the mighty hand of God so that at the proper time He may exalt you, casting all your anxieties on Him, because He cares for you." 1 Peter 5:6-7

I .Summary

A Christian wife must take full ADVANTAGE of all the biblical measures God has provided her in His Word.

To do otherwise is FOOLISH and shows the wife's own unwillingness to obey or her ignorance of God's Word.

The more she obeys, the more she is PROTECTED by God and the better she can biblically and respectfully submit to her husband and the more likely he is to repent.

V. Further Resources

A. Finally Free by Heath Lambert (Grand Rapids, Michigan: Zondervan. 2013).

This book is excellent. The last chapter in the book is entitled "Help for Families and Friends of Men Struggling with Pornography." In it, Lambert sympathizes with the wives and then deals with the wife's emotions and says, "Be a wife, not a cop." In other words, let someone else lead the accountability effort.

Often wives respond with anger and withdrawing. One particularly helpful sentence in Finally Free is, "You are not to blame for your husband's sin, but neither is he responsible for yours." Lambert ends that chapter with "moving forward with mercy and grace."

B. Heartbroken and Healing by Mary Asher and Hannah Palmer (Bemidji, MN: Focus Publishing, 2012).

This book is a real life story/Bible study for ladies who are seeking comfort from God in the wake of marital betrayal. The book takes you from your thoughts and emotions of "finding out" all the way to "opening your heart" to God and to your husband. It guides your journey from being "devastated and crushed" to loving God more and learning to love your husband more. Of course, not all situations end as well as Hannah's, but until it becomes clear that the wife has biblical grounds for divorce, this book will help her honor God and show love to her husband.
